

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham Count

NORTH WOODSTOCK

Neighborhood Social Dances Entertained by Mrs. Calvin L. Rawson.

Mrs. Matilda Morse is spending Thanksgiving week in Providence. Mrs. Emily Vinton after a stay of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. S. Barrett, has returned to Salem, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Traak visited their son Harry in Southbridge, Sunday.

Guests of Mrs. Rawson.

Mrs. Calvin L. Rawson entertained the Neighborhood Social Dances at her pleasant home Friday afternoon. Officers were elected and plans for the coming year considered.

Mrs. Fote of Boston is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Skinner. Mrs. J. J. Fitzgerald and son Francis were in Williamstown Saturday.

Social and Sale.

A church social and Christmas sale with Mrs. Frank Perrin and Mrs. Calvin Rawson as hostesses is in preparation.

Mrs. Fiedel Harrison led the C. E. meeting Sunday evening with a large attendance. The subject was A Joyous Life.

Winfield Armstrong visited his father, Lyman Armstrong, who is very ill with pneumonia Monday.

Mrs. Bernice Leavitt is at her home for the Thanksgiving recess.

Miss Mary F. Potter, assistant supervisor of schools, spent a portion of last week in the Leavitt school.

Mrs. John McGreggor is visiting at her old home in Williamstown.

Ethel Barrett of Williamstown and Leonard Healey of C. H. C. are at home for Thanksgiving.

DAYVILLE

W. E. LaBelle was in Providence, R. I. Tuesday.

Earl Bratley was home from Lowell, Mass., for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. C. A. Russell is spending the week in Boston.

Mrs. George Barnes and Mrs. W. E. LaBelle were in Norwich Tuesday.

Judge and Mrs. Russell were at Danville for Thanksgiving.

Wayland Bennett and a friend from New York are with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bennett for the week.

Mrs. Ellen Williams spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. George Brown in Danville.

Raymond Burnett of Providence, R. I. is the guest of Deacon and Mrs. F. J. Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Greig spent the holiday with Hon. Angus Park and family at Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bidwell were with Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodard for Thanksgiving.

Miss Estelle Curtis is in town for the holidays.

James Blanchard's grandchildren, from Franklin, Mass., are visiting him.

Mrs. Walter Thomas of Pennsylvania is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ray Johnson.

EAST KILLINGLY

Mr. and Mrs. John Chase Celebrate Golden Wedding November 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chase celebrated their golden wedding at their home here, Wednesday, Nov. 25.

Mrs. Chase have resided in East Killingly since they were married. They have one son, John S. Chase, and three grandchildren, Edith, Lewis and John Chase, who live near them.

Mrs. Andrew Potter has returned from visiting friends in Providence Saturday.

Mrs. Harley S. Place was in Providence Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Potter of Elmville was the guest of friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Leon Shippee and Mrs. Carrie Adams were in Danville Monday visiting friends.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Lane visited Mrs. Lane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mason, in Ballouville, Sunday.

Mrs. George M. Shippee returned on Saturday from Danville, R. I., where she has been visiting relatives for several weeks.

Samford Pratt was in Danville on Saturday.

NORTH STERLING

F. O. Plummer and family were in Worcester spending Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Joseph Nappie is spending the week in Boston.

Mrs. Arthur Scott and daughter, Doris, of Leicester, has been visiting Mrs. F. O. Plummer.

George C. Spooner attended the funeral of Mrs. Joshua Hill in Danville Monday.

J. D. Hillery was in Providence last week.

Mrs. Lena Griffith is spending the week in Central Village.

John Potter and family of Plainfield were at their farm here Sunday.

Cider mills have been doing a good business.

Local people who ride over the state road to Danville are anxious to see it completed to the Rhode Island state line.

Charles Corey has a new water system completed.

PACKER

The funeral of Christian Walker was held at his home Monday. Burial was at Packer.

Miss Scott of Canterbury has been visiting Miss Evelyn Brown.

T. J. Brown took dinner with Park Smith and family of Canterbury, Thursday.

RAWSON

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Phillips and daughter spent Sunday in Rhode Island.

Miss Sadie Fitzgerald of Williamstown spent Thanksgiving at her home here. Other Thanksgiving guests were Mrs. William Phillips at D. T. Phillips'; Mrs. Robert Weeks and daughter.

INDOORS
From 8 to 5

working indoors, whether in office or factory or store, often weakens even a strong constitution as shown in nervous symptoms, languor or repeated colds.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is helping thousands every day; its rare oil-food enriches the blood and aids the throat and lungs. It is a strength-sustaining tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs.

There is an old saying that if the first snow goes off by the sun all the snow during the winter will go in the same way. That is a promise of sleighing.

Miss Alice E. Pratt with a friend and associate teacher from Suffield is passing the holiday and week end at her home here.

Prash eggs five cents apiece and as scarce as gold.

Louise Schmidt was snowed in at Union last week and obliged to leave his machine there for several days. He is again on his rounds, but keeping to the southward.

Maude Schmidt goes soon to Springfield, Mass., to enter an office.

COLUMBIA

Surprise Party for Miss Wolf—Mrs. Alanson H. Fuller Celebrates 95th Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Fuller of Andover were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Little one day last week.

Miss Lena G. Wolf was given a surprise party on Friday evening of last week at the home of her mother and brother on Columbia Green where she has been spending two weeks' vacation.

There was a meeting of the Church and Ecclesiastical society at the chapel Friday afternoon to consider business connected with pulp supply and minister's salary.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Rice and daughter Gladys visited Miss Rice's sister, Miss L. Morell Cook, at East Wallingford last week.

Rev. Mr. Linscott of Maine, a classmate of Rev. E. O. Foster, has been spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. Foster at the parsonage.

John Bowker of Norwich was the guest Sunday of Mrs. Kate Wolf and daughter Lena.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nettleton and daughter Grace were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kneeland in Pine street Sunday.

Thanksgiving Praise Service.

The service last Sunday evening was under the auspices of the music committee of the Young People's society. It was a Thanksgiving praise service and consisted largely of singing.

The governor's Thanksgiving proclamation was read from the pulpit Sunday. Public services were held at the church Thursday at 11 o'clock.

Student to Preach.

G. E. Wolfe of the Hartford Theological seminary will preach here next Sunday in the absence of the pastor. Mr. Wolfe was a classmate of Mr. Foster.

Ninety-fifth Birthday.

Mrs. Alanson H. Fuller celebrated her 95th birthday last Monday. Mrs. Fuller is remarkably well in body and mind for a person of her age.

S. E. West left Tuesday for Easton, Penn., to spend Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. Thomas Moseley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clarke spent the Thanksgiving season with the family of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Shekleton in Hartford.

EAST WILLINGTON

Gray Fox Captured—Help Transferred to Spool Shop.

Miss Edith L. Morgan has been spending Thanksgiving at her home on Father's Island.

Charles Woodworth has given up skunk farming and has captured a gray fox that he is retaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth are in the E. A. devereux.

The was skating on Lake Beauty the first part of the week, although it is perhaps hardly safe as yet.

Schools May Have Superintendent.

The town school committee of Stafford in company with Secretary W. E. Hall of the local school board and Supervisor L. T. Garrison, visited five of the schools last week Friday. As a result it would surprise if Stafford employed a superintendent of schools.

Louis, Leo and Leslie Korper of Hartford have spent several days hunting in town this fall and have been quite successful bagging game.

The outdoor help being transferred to the spool shop by the school for roughing birches for spools has begun.

STAFFORDVILLE

Mrs. Martha Goodwill's House Robbed of $40 While She is at Church.

Rev. E. H. Tunncliffe, pastor of the Methodist church, is the guest this week of his sister in Trenton, N. J.

Rev. Dr. J. P. Booth of Stafford Hollow will perform the E. E. church next Sunday morning. Sunday evening Mrs. Lina Booth will conduct an Epworth league service.

Mrs. Jessie Bosworth is the Thanksgiving guest this week of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George Corey, in Hampden, Mass.

Forty Dollars Stolen.

While Mrs. Martha Goodwill was at church last Sunday morning, her house was entered and $40 was stolen.

Mrs. L. M. Booth visited her daughter, Mrs. George W. and Mrs. Florence Webster, in Springfield, Mass., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bosworth and two children and Mrs. G. W. Miller were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. F. H. Ballou in Rock Meadow.

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Miss Elsie Maine is spending the Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. White and Miss Julia Clark spent last Wednesday in Hartford.

Miss Abbie Amidon, teacher in the Gilbert home, Winsted, is spending the week end at her home here.

The Horkey property has been sold again to out of town purchasers.

Ell Wood has sold his farm to a New York buyer.

Mrs. Joseph Dimock has returned home after spending three weeks with friends in New York, Boston and Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kommer spent the week end with friends in Ashford.

Miss Edna Bugbee and Miss Alice Pratt were home on Sunday.

Miss Minnie Converse has returned home from Vermont, where she has been substituting as commercial teacher.

STAFFORD

Mrs. Frank Medbury Leaves Hospital—Mrs. Puffer Recalled to New York.

Doris Murray is ill with rheumatic fever.

Miss Helen Wightman is home from Northfield for the Thanksgiving recess.

Charles Dimmick is in Westfield, working at his trade of painter and paperhanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell of Westfield are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rollinson.

Mrs. Reuben Burley is suffering from a severe attack of grip. Mrs. Albert Crozier is caring for her.

Returns from Hospital.

Mrs. Frank Medbury returned last Friday from the Johnson hospital, where she has been under treatment for the last two weeks.

Miss Margaret Glover returned last Monday from Boston, where she has been taking a two months' course in a large millinery establishment. Miss Rachel Glover spent Saturday and Sunday with her.

Going to Arizona.

Mrs. Eleanor Puffer has been enjoying her home here, Rose Villa, for over two weeks, until recalled to New York to join the staff of scenario writers of a famous film company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Walbridge has bought a store out of town and will move from Stafford in about two weeks.

BOLTON

School Board Elects Officers—Thanksgiving Dinner Guests at the Alvord Home.

The school board met Monday evening and elected officers for the year, namely: Chairman, Fred D. Finley; secretary, J. White Sumner; auditor, Theodore Reichard; sub-committee, Center district, J. White Sumner; South district, Fred D. Finley; North district, W. H. French; North district, Theodore Reichard.

Supt. A. N. Potter of Williamstown visited the local schools Wednesday.

Miss Ann Baker was returned to Columbia after several days spent in town.

Returns to Torrington.

Walter A. Dewey, who has spent the past three years a resident of Bolton, has returned to Torrington, where he will spend the winter with his father, George L. Dewey.

E. Jane Finley entertained at her home over Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fryer, Mr. and Mrs. Minot S. Fryer of Williamstown and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Finley.

Mrs. F. E. Ruggles was a recent guest of Mrs. Charles Ruggles and family.

Charles E. Sumner was in New Haven Saturday to see the football game.

Mrs. William E. Clark and three children have closed their home in Bolton and are moving with Mr. and Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Upton, for the winter.

Dinner guests at the Alvord home Thursday were Miss Annie M. Alvord, Prof. and Mrs. S. M. Alvord, Morgan Alvord, Mrs. Louise Jewett, Kenneth Jewett of Hartford and Mrs. R. S. Ward of Ocean Grove, N. J.

Mrs. William Atkins and infant son have moved from Hockanum to Bolton to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Atkins' parents.

Mr. Atkins will be in town when his work will permit.

William Trowbridge spent Thursday in Mansfield.

Mrs. J. W. Phelps is recovering from the grip.

Wine Trip to California.

Miss Edith M. Maxwell of South Manchester won the largest number of votes in district No. 10 in the contest given by a Hartford paper, giving the contest a prize of a free trip to California next summer.

Miss Maxwell has many friends in town who were pleased at her success.

STORRS

Meeting of Ladies' Circle—Sum of $115 Secured for Belgian Relief Work.

The union Christian Endeavor meeting at Spring Hill was largely attended by members from Storrs. Miss Thompson was the soloist.

Sewing for Sale.

The Ladies' circle meeting Tuesday afternoon was unusually interesting. Sewing was done for the Christmas tree for the poor of Pennsylvania.

Southwick on the violin, with vocal solos by Mrs. Newton. Several guests were present. The new paint and paper on the lower floor of the parsonage was admired as well as the products of the new range in the kitchen.

College classes have been suspended since Wednesday noon and will resume Monday morning.

Secured $115.

The Belgian relief committee secured $115, which was turned in with the Williamstown fund.

TOLLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. West Celebrate Golden Wedding.

The Nature Study club met Monday at W. A. Asgard's.

Irish Wilcox and family of Merrow were at John L. Rhodes Sunday.

Mrs. William Barber has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Elias Williams of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Smith of Manchester has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sterry.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Thiden Jewett were in Worcester, Mass., Sunday.

William Barber was in town Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Asgard has returned home, after visiting in Rhode Island and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. West celebrated the 60th anniversary of their wedding Thursday.

The diphtheria quarantine has been removed from the home of Philip Doyle.

BOLTON NOTCH

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Maine spent Thanksgiving in Hartford, guests of Mrs. Emma McGinn.

Miss Madeline Howard of New York is visiting her mother, Mr. E. E. Howard.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles O. Maine of Stonington spent Thanksgiving with Dr. M. Maine.

Robert Warner and daughters Ruth, Mary and Hattie, of South Manchester, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Minnie Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shaw and son Elmer were in Hartford for Thanksgiving.

W. Howard spent Wednesday in Hartford.

A Question of Comparison.

"Tom Platt was a bigger boss than Barnes," says Roosevelt. Sure; at that time he was a bigger boss than the Colonel himself.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Fruit canning is becoming popular in South Africa.

Protect Yourself
Ask for ORIGINAL GENUINE

The Food Drink for All Ages—Highly Nutritious and Convenient

Rich milk, with malted grain extract, in powder form—dissolves in water—more healthful than tea or coffee. Used in training athletes. The best diet for infants, growing children, invalids, and the aged. It agrees with the weakest digestion.

Ask for "HORLICKS"—at Hotels, Restaurants, Fountains. Don't travel without it. Also keep it at home. A lunch in a minute. In Lunch Tablet form, also, ready to eat. Convenient—nutritious.

IT IS THE TASTE, THE FLAVOR OF BAKER'S COCOA

That Makes It Deservedly Popular

An absolutely pure, delicious and wholesome food beverage, produced by a scientific blending of high-grade cocoa beans, subjected to a perfect mechanical process of manufacture.

Get the genuine, made only by

WALTER BAKER & CO. LIMITED
DORCHESTER, MASSACHUSETTS

Established 1780

Washington County, R. I. USQUEPAUGH

Two Received Into Church Membership—Mrs. George S. James Suffers a Shock.

Mrs. Anna Wells has gone to Shannock to spend the winter with her son, Stephen Wells, and wife.

Mrs. M. D. Palmer and Mrs. Caroline Palmer went to Exeter Sunday to spend a few weeks with Frank Teft and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Bray spent Thanksgiving at T. T. Locke's.

Mrs. Hattie Potter and sister, Nettie Kelly of Exeter spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Sarah Franklin.

Join the Church.

Two new members were received into the church here Sunday morning, one by letter and the other by baptism.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lamond went to New York Monday night to visit their daughter, Mrs. R. H. Carpenter. On their way home they are to visit their son John at Middletown, Conn.

Fred Clarke and family of Arctic spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Clarke's mother, Mrs. Esther Kenyon.

Suffered a Shock.

Mrs. George S. James, who was stricken with a shock a few days ago, remains about the same. Mrs. Carrie F. Brown, her adopted daughter, is caring for her.

Joie Sullivan of Providence spent Sunday at A. W. Kenyon's.

Mrs. Georgia Lills of Valley Falls spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. E. E. Kenyon.

Mrs. Fannie Bicknell of Hamilton is visiting her niece, Mrs. E. E. Kenyon.

Mrs. S. C. Webster, Jr., who has been visiting her parents here, spent Thanksgiving with Dr. S. C. Webster at Westerly.

Charles Boss of Exeter was a caller here Thanksgiving day.

ROCKVILLE

Mrs. George Chester and little son of Providence were recent guests of Mrs. J. P. Greene.

The household goods of Rev. A. G. Crofoot who is going to West Edmeston, N. Y., were carried to the station Monday.

Mrs. Crofoot left Tuesday morning to visit with relatives this week. The pastor, Mr. Crofoot, stays until after next Saturday.

The many friends of Hon. Benjamin Kenyon were pleased to see him out to church after a long illness.

Frank C. Burdick is erecting a new woodhouse and granary.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ondoff of Providence were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Greene.

W. W. Winter of Hopkinton City preached here last Saturday in exchange with Rev. A. G. Crofoot.

Mrs. Lottie J. Burdick has gone to Stamford, Conn. to spend the winter with her brother and family.

THIS BUSY WORLD

At the National Negro Business league convention at Muskogee, Okla., it was stated that the 3,000,000 negroes living in Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas now have under their control as owners and renters about $300,000,000 worth of farm property and own 80,000 farms, containing 6,000,000 acres of land with farm property,